

STYLE OF ACTIVITY

DESCRIPTION

You are a diligent person who works methodologically and procedurally. Your work focus and concentration are high. You tend to be comfortable working one-by-one, step-by-step. You tend to be comfortable working with a steady tempo or you even tend to be slow. You might not be comfortable to rush in working, but you will finish your work responsibility with a high standard.

TO DEVELOP

To develop, improve your work tempo. Increase your work tempo, get used to work out and practice your speed by doing a certain repetitive activity, such as typing with ten fingers, etc. Cooperate, build communication with your work peers. Discuss the different views that exist in your work team, listen to their perspectives. Be a more productive person. Do not be afraid of doing mistakes, do not be anxious working under pressure.
